ORDER:

The Anti Corruption Bureau officials conducted a surprise check on Sub Registrar Office, Tadepalligudem on 30/31-8-2003 on certain allegations against Sub Registrar and his staff including Sri D.F.J.Babu Rao, Senior Assistant that they are indulging in corrupt practices and collecting bribes from the parties. Basing on the recommendations of the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, Government have ordered to initiate departmental action under rule 20 of Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (CCA) Rules, 1991. After receipt of Written Statement of Defence, a regular inquiry into the matter was conducted and the Regular Enquiry Officer after conducting a detailed enquiry has submitted his report holding that out of the (2) charges framed against Sri D.F.J.Babu Rao, Senior Assistant (Retd.), one charge is proved and another charge is not proved.

2. Government after careful consideration of the facts of the case, have provisionally decided to impose a penalty 10% cut in pension permanently on Sri D.F.J.Babu Rao, Senior Assistant (Retd.) on the proved charge under rule 9 of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980. Accordingly, a show cause notice has been issued to him in the reference 3rd read above on the provisional decision of Government as required under rule 9(2) of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980 for his representation.

3. In the reference 5th cited, Sri D.F.J.Babu Rao, Senior Assistant (Retd) has submitted representation to Government stating that he has not indulged in corrupt practices as alleged and he has nothing to do with the unaccounted cash found in the record room. He has also submitted that during the course of enquiry, the prosecution could not establish that he was guilty and there was no complaint against him from the public and similarly there were no adverse remarks against him from the higher authorities regarding discharging duties and the Anti Corruption Bureau authorities could not establish that the money picked up by them in the record room with the help of mediators brought by them belonging to him and no body stated that it was his money. He has further submitted that the proposed punishment which is unreasonable, will cause a big loss in his pension and put him into much hardship as he has already suffered suspension and thereby physical and mental agony. He has requested the Government to consider his case on humanitarian grounds and to drop further action and do justice to him.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter and considering the representation of the Charged Officer thereon, have decided to drop further action against him. Accordingly, it is hereby ordered to drop further action against Sri D.F.J.Babu Rao, Senior Assistant (Retd.)

5. The Commissioner & Inspector General of Registration & Stamps shall take necessary further action accordingly.
